Oques Grasses

The most expected new songs and tour
NEW ALBUM AND
PRESENTATION TOUR 2024

Oques Grasses have led the way in recent years and have become an unprecedented Catalan phenomenon that have changed the catalan pop music esthetics and have also reached the absolute record of 18.400 people in Palau Sant Jordi, in their celebration of his 10 years on stage.

Their personal and non-transferable talent, their charming lyrics and their corporeal rhythms drag masses to the dance floor. They also collect awards and gold and platinum records since they published "Fans del Sol" in 2019 and put the icing on the cake of their career with their last album in 2021, "A tope amb la vida". Overall, 150 million streams of their songs on Spotify alone. This 2024, Oques Grasses will publish a new album, the sixth of the band, that will be presented in an exclusive tour through the main stages of Spain.

Stay Homas

The festival headliners NEW HITS AND NEW TOUR 2024

Stay Homas is one of the best live bands in our country. This has been proven by the many sold-outs achieved in cities such as London, Paris, Brussels, Milan or stages such as the WiZink Center in Madrid. Three tours in three years, where they have also conquered festival stages throughout the peninsula.

Consolidated within the national and international music scene, Stay Homas is a phenomenon thanks to their memorable concerts supported by a collection of songs that have enamored millions of people around the world and even artists who wanted to collaborate such as Rubén Blades, Manu Chao or Michael Bublé.

In 2023 they surprised us with HOMAS, their second studio album, which has left a mark on people's hearts with songs like "La Platja" or "La Nòria". This 2024, they promise new hits and a tour that will include the main festivals in Spain, Europe and Latin America.

Buhos

A band of records NEW HITS AND NEW TOUR 2024

Buhos are the referential festive band and one of the great headliners at the national level. With more than 1,000 concerts behind them that demonstrate their authenticity and ability on stage, they have managed to gain the loyalty of the public wherever they perform. With more than 250 thousand followers on social networks, they are the number 1 Catalan band on TikTok. Their hundreds of thousands of monthly listeners on Spotify and more than 45 million views on YouTube (including a gold disc for "Volcans"), places them in the TOP 3 monthly listeners of music in Catalan on streaming platforms.

In 2023 they surprised us with "La nit està que crema", an album that introduced electronic elements, but with the usual festive and vindictive spirit. Its publication is accompanied by a tour of the main stages and festivals of the Catalan territories, Spain and Europe. This 2024, we will be able to enjoy new hits and a new tour that will light up the most important stages everywhere.

Els Catarres

The iconic catalan band
NEW HITS AND NEW
TOUR 2024

Els Catarres are one of the main responsables for the revival of Catalan pop music, achieving historical milestones that have marked the contemporary Catalan music, such as a gold record for the sale of more than 20,000 copies of "Big Bang", twelve Enderrock awards, four ARC awards and two Disc Català de l'any awards. Els Catarres are a unique and iconic band; a great headliner.

With their last album, "Diamants", published in 2022, the band has shone out again as strong as ever, selling out venues such as Sant Jordi Club in 2022, with 4.500 people, or four consecutive dates at Sala Apolo of Barcelona in 2023, with 4.800 people. This 2024, Els Catarres are preparing new songs and a new tour through the main stages of Catalonia, Valencia and Balearic Islands.

Figa Flawas

The new revolution
of Catalan music

NEW ALBUM AND NEW
TOUR 2024

Figa Flawas are the revolution of the new generation of Catalan pop music. Their fresh sound and their hypnotic and unique live performance have made everyone fall in love.

Xavier Cartanyà and Pep Velasco are the two frontmen with the most personality of the moment, the set lists of their concerts are full of anthems that the whole audience chants and their dance troupe performs adrenalinic and ironic choreographies that leave no one indifferent. All together form one of the greatest shows of the Catalan music scene. Songs such as "Mussegu", "Diabla" or "Que no s'acabi" have become generational anthems, with millions of reproductions on digital platforms and entry on several occasions into Spotify's TOP 50 Viral in Spain, they have even achieved several TOP 1 on Catalan radios. Figa Flawas will present a new album and an ambitious presentation tour through the Catalonia during 2024.

Ginestà

Unstoppable phenomenon NEW ALBUM AND NEW TOUR 2024

Ginestà are one of the most unique and inspiring young catalan pop bands. The duet composed by the brother and sister Pau and Júlia Serrasolsas, together with the guitarist Andrea Puig and the drummer and producer Xicu, have reach hits that are already a part of the catalan songbook, such as "L'Eva i la Jana" o "De tot el món". In less than five years on stages, the band has thrilled an entire generation with their moving lyrics and their delicious melodies.

After touring for huge festivals such Cruilla, Acústica or Festiuet, and sell out venues like Apolo and Razzmatazz in Barcelona, Ginestà is starting a 2024 full of news with a new album on spring, the fourth of the band, and a new tour through Catalonia, Valencia and Balearic Islands.

Triquell

A new reference selling out venues

NEW EP AND NEW TOUR 2024

Triquell is one of the best-known artists of the new batch of catalan musicians that became known in the first place through the TV3 talent show, "Eufòria". Since adolescence, music has been his vital engine, a passion that he professionalized over the years, becoming the composer, performer, and producer that he is today.

With their debut album, "Entre fluids", an exquisite recording between pop, rock and urban music, and the energy and strongness of his live show, Triquell shows a unique and lasting personality. So far, he has been in huge festivals such as GuitarBCN, Cruïlla, Acústica o La Mercè. This 2024, Triquell is preparing new music that will be presented as an EP on January, together with a new tour that will again visit the main catalan stages.

Suu

Female empowerment on stage

NEW HITS AND NEW
TOUR 2024

Suu is one of the most visible faces of the new generation of Catalan and Spanish pop-indie musicians. With three published albums, the artist has crossed borders. With her songs and her commitment to the empowerment of women, she has won the respect of the audience, the critics and the rest of his colleagues; also demonstrating her great charisma on social networks and, above all, on the stages of the main national festivals such as Sonorama, Viña Rock, SonRias Baixas, Revenidas, Festival de los Sentidos, BIME, Pirata Beach Festival, Cruilla, Canet Rock, Palau de la Música (sold-out), and a long etcetera.

This 2024, the Catalan singer will make us fall in love with new singles, which she will present in an intimate and exclusive tour throughout the Iberian Peninsula.

La Fúmiga

From Alzira to the world, the most festive mediterranean soundtrack

NEW ALBUM AND NEW TOUR 2024

La Fúmiga is the most relevant valencian band lately on catalan music scene. With their two albums, "Espremedors" in 2019 and "Fotosíntesi" in 2021, the band has achieved millions of streams on digital platforms and awards like the Carles Santos IVC award or the Ovidi award as best album miscegenation album. The festive and stimulating proposal, aims the audience with rhythms and lyrics that have become anthems.

For these reasons, it is not surprising that the band have become one of the favorite groups to occupy the headliners of more than sixty programs during 2023 through Catalonia, Valencia and Balearic Islands, such as valencian Falles, Viñarock, Arenal Sound or La Mercè of Barcelona. This 2024, La Fúmiga will publish a new album with the best lyrics and rhythms that will be presented in a new tour from spring.

Lildami

The urban Messiah for all audiences

NEW HITS AND NEW
TOUR 2024

With messages away from drugs and sexism and with an intense and long career, Lildami has become the spokesperson for urban music sung in Catalan. He is the only artist on the scene who has won the Cerverí Award for Best Lyrics and on two consecutive occasions the Enderrock Award for Best Hip-Hop and Urban Music Artist.

With a career very prolific on a creative level, in 2023 he published his fifth album, "DUMMY", with songs such as the well-known "Supermercat", which has become an anthem. The artist has been able to combine his facet as a live artist, playing in more than fifty venues on in 2023, with organizing the first international urban music festival in Catalonia, Maleducats, and becoming the jury of the two editions of the very popular TV3 talent show, "Eufòria". Lildami will amaze us again this 2024 with new singles and a new tour through Catalonia, Valencia and Balearic Islands.

Habla de mí en presente

Your trusted technorumba
band

NEW ALBUM AND
PRESENTATION TOUR 2024

Habla de mí en presente surprised everyone with their first album 'Vivir más', a work loaded with techno and rumba, which made them one of the revelation groups of 2022 thanks to the uniqueness and personality of their project. With a deliberately indie aesthetic, this boy band made up of musicians of Catalan, French and German origin present a proposal that unites Berlin techno with Catalan rumba, along with sensitive and existentialist lyrics.

After a first successful two-year tour, which has led them to play at the main Catalan and Spanish festivals such as Vida Festival, Cruïlla, Festival Gigante or Cooltural, and cross borders to India's Udaipur World Music or a sold-out in the German capital, the international quintet will captivate everyone again with a new album that will not leave anyone indifferent, and a devastating live show that will transform every stage they step into a festive club.

Sergi Carbonell

A poetic universe of delicate sounds that will conquer your heart

NEW EP AND NEW TOUR 2024

The co-founder and one of the composers of Txarango, Sergi Carbonell, surprised us this 2023 with 'Refugi', the presentation album of his solo project. Away from festive music and solo piano music, his new project transforms Carbonell into a band author.

His is a poetic universe full of delicate and sensitive sonorities that earned him the cover of Enderrock magazine; and made him conquer the audiences of prestigious venues such as Auditori de Girona (sold-out), Auditori de Barcelona, Guitar BCN, Barnasants or Esperanzah. His exquisite show in a band format has a sublime staging. This season, he will captivate us with a new EP planned for the winter of 2024, and a new tour of the main theaters, auditoriums and festivals of the Catalonia.

Meritxell Nedderman

Proficiency and sensitivity
made into melodies

NEW ALBUM AND PRESENTATION TOUR 2024

The rhythm and melodies run through the veins of Meritxell Neddermann, who is characterized by a sharp sensibility like few others. On her debut album, 'In the Backyard of the Castle', the versatility and dexterity of both piano and voice distill the sound until it finds its own, intimate and ethereal, clearly marked by the mix of genres – classical music, jazz, funky and indie – and for experimenting with loops, pedals and vocoder.

After more than two years of touring around Catalonia, Spain and the United States; her sonority and his talent surprise again in her second album, 'Suelta' which has been successfully presented at the MMVV, La Mercè, Buenos Aires and other exclusive programs.

Juls

Girona's new promising talent

Juls is one of the new emerging voices on the Catalan music scene. The young singer from Girona presents a proposal that mixes indie-pop and urban, and has sparked great interest in the new Catalan music scene.

In November 2023, the artist managed to viralise her first song, "Tant de bo no l'hagués conegut" on platforms such as Tik Tok and Instagram. After this first hit, Juls has not stopped creating, releasing two more singles: "et vull x sempre" and "Mai Més", and preparing her live performance at the Strenes Festival in her hometown.

Kelly Isaiah

The catalan voice

Kelly Isaiah is the frontman par excellence. His rhythm and voice charm for the very first moment, transgressing tastes and styles.

He was the winner in the talent show La Voz on 2020, with an stellar participation, where he was able to make the audience in love, as well as the judges Antonio Orozco, Pablo López, Alejandro Sanz and Laura Pausini. Kelly Isaiah has also been the singer and frontman of Koers, the most well-known catalan reggae band.

El Niño de la Hipoteca

Direct and powerful songs
for all stages

NEW ALBUM AND
PRESENTATION TOUR 2024

El Niño de la Hipoteca (alter ego of Guiu Cortés) has been a complete revolution in the world of music. Known for his songs and his groundbreaking ideas when it comes to spreading music; Guiu Cortés is one of the pioneers, in this country, of the multitasking artist format that is self-edited, self-produced and self-managed.

After many years exploring his own project and constantly reinventing himself, El Niño de la Hipoteca surprises us this 2024 with a new album with a sound focused on rock in all its variants, with a band of great musicians like Ferrán Exceso. A work full of direct, powerful songs with the same freshness in the lyrics have made us fall in love. An ideal proposal for large stages that need projects that make people jump, as has already been seen at massive festivals such as Viña Rock, Cabo de Plata, Sonorama, or Rabolagartija.

Els Amics de les Arts

The catalan reference band for their impeccable and solid career. A safe bet of quality and a unique live show that connects with different generations

Charismatic and versatile, Els Amics de les Arts say the will of their songs is to narrate their pass through life. Songs that have become generational anthems, such as "Jean Luc", "Ja no ens passa" o "Louisiana o els camps de cotó". With his latest album, "Allà on volia" (Pistatxo Records, 2022), are added to this list of greatest hits songs like "Citant Mercè Rodoreda" or "La nit sembla que serà nostra" together with Eva Amaral.

Gabriela Richardson

The voice that made half the planet fell in love publishes new album on 2024

The success of "Hundred Miles" by electronic music producers Yall - which was the soundtrack to a campaign of a well-known fashion brand- made everyone suddenly turn to a young voice with a unique timbre, Gabriela Richardson's. That was on 2015. Since then, she worked hard on her solo career and, song by song, sought their own sound together with the best producers. Songs such as "Don't talk to me" and "Hurricane" start positioning her as an artist who, despite moving in the ephemeral world electronic pop, has been able to permeate everything she does with her own style where she mixes the hedonism of dance music with touches of melancholy and female empowerment. Gabriela is preparing her new album that will be published in January, working with producers like Raúl Refree or InnerCut, together with some national and international artists collaborations.

Jedet

The earthquake that has shaken the country's social networks, literature, series and music

Jedet, actress, singer, writer, activist, content creator and influencer. The Jedet phenomenon is an earthquake that has shaken the social networks, literature, series and, of course, music in our country. Her career as a singer began in 2017 when she released her first single, "Reinas", with Ms Nina. At the same time she starts her acting career in the series "Looser", appears in "Paquita Salas" and is chosen to give life to Cristina La Veneno in "Veneno", as well as giving voice to the trailer and header of the series with her version of the song "Veneno pa' tu piel".

In 2022 she released her first album "A los hombres que he tenido que olvidar". "This work is a catharsis, it is my way of closing a stage, a love triangle in which I have been involved during these years. And through lyrics and music, to be able to heal the tempestuous relationships I have experienced and to find the hope to continue", says Jedet. Closing this period, she has released three more singles focused on urban music, "En el Club", "DevoToto" and "Barbie G".

Ismael Serrano

25 years of success

Ismael Serrano surprises us once again with a new show full of poetry, in which he invites the audience to enjoy the privilege of listening to his usual hits and previously unreleased songs. Songs that will undoubtedly become new hymns to remember that effervescent time when we felt intensely alive and the future was ours.

To "La canción de nuestra vida", the singer-songwriter updates his repertoire with a new album, released on September 22th. He will do so by offering the audience a different musical experience, fleeing from the conventional recital and going deeper into the theatrical show that he has already advanced in previous productions.

El Kanka

One of the most prolific
songwriters of our country

Juan Gómez Canca, better known as El Kanka, is one of the most beloved artists of our music scene. Since the beginning of his career with "Lo mal que estoy y lo poco que me que me quejo" (2013), the singer-songwriter from Málaga has made a good collection of albums full of unforgettable songs such as "Qué bello es vivir", "Querría, Por tu olor" and "Andalucía", among many others.

Now, after starring in major concerts and triumphing at the main festivals in Spain and Latin America, El Kanka is back with his new album "Cosas de los Vivientes".

María Peláe

Art in its purest form

María Peláe debuted with "Hipocondria" (2016), an album that took her to songwriter's halls all over Spain. But it was in 2020 when she started the tour "La Niña" and began this new stage, in which folklore, songwriters' songs and flamenco were united for an international and innovative production. In 2022 she released her second album, "La Folcrónica", which won the Odeon Award for Best Flamenco Album. Her versatility has led her to work in different kinds of shows, as well as to bring out her more television side, participating in successful programmes such as "Tu Cara Me Suena".

In June 2023, she was awarded the Arcoiris award by the Ministry of Equality for her fight and defence of the rights of the LGTBIQ+ collective. A month later, she released the song that would set a record in her career, "La Putukita", which remained a Spanish trend for weeks and quickly reached a million views of its videoclip. This song was the preview of her latest album, "Al Baño María". She is currently immersed in the promotion of the album and the song with which she will participate in Benidorm Fest 2024.

DePol

With an innate talent, he presents himself as the pop phenomenon of 2024.

Pol Gutiérrez, 21 years old, born on 11 January 2002 in Barcelona. He started playing the guitar when he was only 12 years old, almost out of boredom, in a self-made way with an old instrument he had at home. A couple of years later, also on his own, he started singing. During these years he also learned to play the ukulele and the piano. In 2018 he started to compose music and lyrics as a way of expression to overcome his shyness in themes of love. Currently, the young artist who plays the most important radios of the state and exceeds 1.6M monthly listeners on Spotify has several singles on the market as "Ultimamente Roma no se amor" and his well-known hit "Quién diría" which already exceeds 28M plays on platforms and has reached gold record. In addition, "Qué bonita" has also accumulated more than 15 million streams. DePol, with an innate talent, is the breath of fresh air that the music scene needs so much.
